Newsletter April 2017

Now that Article 50 has been triggered, Brexit is formally under way. Many businesses will wonder what impact that will have on them. This month we give you our view and suggest some things that you can do during this period of uncertainty.

Welcome to the Shulmans newsletter.

We have been looking to the future in other ways lately too. We hosted a well-attended Transport & Infrastructure seminar in partnership with WSP, and we were present once again at MIPIM Cannes, as part of an even bigger Leeds City Region delegation. Significant transactions have been completed by our planning and corporate teams, and our insolvency department won a landmark High Court case.

We've also added to our numbers, including in our double award-winning real estate division, which is one of the strongest in the UK.

We have started raising funds for our new Charity of the Year, the Yorkshire Air Ambulance, and have been partnering with the Shine Project and the Social Mobility Foundation to help underprivileged young people forge successful careers.
